OTHER NOTICES ...

We are spoiled for choice when it comes to Bible Month this month...

BIBLE MONTH 2018
30 days with Jonah
— #BibleMonth —

Rev Ian Hill is continuing his half-hour discussions on Wednesday mornings in Room 3 at 11.45am-12.15pm on 13th, 20th, 27th June.

Heather Lewis is leading sessions on Jonah on Monday evenings, also in Room 3, from 7.30pm-8.30pm. The dates for these are 11th, 18th, 25th June and 2nd July.

There are a small number of connexion magazines available in the foyer, on the table.

Do feel free to take one home, and then if you wish return it for others to read. There are some very interesting features within it, people telling their stories from all walks of Methodist life, from students to Street Angel, and even some letters sent to Charles Wesley in the 18th Century.

World Cup 2018 The Circuit Staff have held a draw to see which church would be represented by each country in the World Cup and Lidgett drew..... Iceland, whose first Group D match on Saturday 16th June is against Argentina—no pressure there then!

Not exactly favourites to win, but it's always good to support the underdog, isn't it.

Anna is delighted to be able to donate £350 to The Ambulance Wish Foundation, which gives non-mobile, elderly and terminally ill people the resources to make memories and fulfil a wish, following her recent half-marathon. Many thanks to all who supported her, and well done to Anna for this achievement.

Fiona, Robyn and John made it from York Minster to Beverley Minster and back last Saturday and we offer them many thanks for such a 'sterling' effort in raising funds for our church! It's not too late to donate—have a word with one of them today.

It is Methodist Homes Sunday today, celebrating 75 years of MHA. There are leaflets and bookmarks available in the foyer on the table if you are interested in supporting them.
