Please remember in your prayers.....

Our friends who worship at Husthwaite, and for those in prison and those who work with them. Please also pray for Mo as she preaches at Clifton Moor this morning, Dave as he preaches at Thornton-le-Clay, and Ian as he preaches tonight at Poppleton.

TOMORROW

Don't forget the Ladies Leisure Group (speaker is Helen Willis on Autism for All) at 2.15pm, and the Worship Meeting to plan our Own Arrangements service to be held on 4th November, 7.30pm.

WEDNESDAY PRAYERS ARE BACK!

We would love you to come and join us straight after Wednesday Coffee Mornings, as we spend about 20-30 minutes praying for people and situations which we have come across and which are on our hearts.

Just come as you are, your prayers can be silent if you prefer, you don't have to pray out loud

OTHER NOTICES

CHRISTMAS CRAFTERNOON FAIR - SATURDAY 24th NOVEMBER

How can you help? Please have a look at the notice board in the corridor and sign up to say you are happy to help on the day. Also, please take a leaflet home and look at how you can support the Fair by donations, creations, and lots of other ways.

Thank you for your magnificent support of last year's, which showed in the excellent feedback we received. As well as the above, you could come along to our Craft Evenings (dates shown in the Diary bit below) and either bring along your own craft to make, or join in with more communal ones. If you are interested in coming but not sure what to make, do talk to Helen, Julia or one of the team, they would be delighted to have your help.

Less than 6 weeks to go.....

3Generate—1000 Letters

Youth President Jasmine Yeboah, would like to say THANK YOU SO MUCH for your letters for 3Generate - so far they have received 182 of the 1000 aimed for - have you sent yours off yet? Deadline is 31st October. For more information see www.methodist.org.uk/1000letters

If you want to save postage, pop yours in the polypocket on the Office door and Lin will send them all off together, so we can encourage young Methodists to be courageous in their faith.

The Circuit are encouraging churches to hold more Own Arrangement services to ease the demand on preachers and our next ones are on 4th November and Christmas Day. It is a great opportunity for us to think outside the box, and encourage more people to participate. If you would like to contribute to these services in any way however small, please speak to Rosamond, Heather, or Ian Hill, or come to one of the planning meetings (see diary, our next one is tomorrow).

We are grateful to Rosamond and team for such an uplifting and thought-provoking own arrangements service last week, and thanks to Eric for his usual top-notch photography:

NEXT WEEK

We celebrate our Chapel Anniversary with Rev'd Gavin and Tracy Hume—this will be followed by a Shared Lunch.

Thank you so much for all the poppies you have made. We think we now have enough—so please could you bring all the ones you've made to church as soon as possible so the Craft and Chat ladies can attach them to the netting in good time. Many thanks.

Indonesia

All We Can and The Methodist Church in Britain have launched an urgent appeal for the people of Indonesia following the destruction caused by the earthquake and tsunami on Sulawesi. You can donate via the All We Can website, by phone 020 7467 5132, or by sending a cheque (payable to All We Can) to them at 25 Marylebone Road, London, NW1 5JR stating that your gift is for the Indonesia Emergency Appeal.

We do generate quite a lot of spent paper at Lidgett, with notice sheets, booklets and posters that visitors leave, and though we try to keep things digital it's not always possible. If we organised a collection point, could one of you volunteer to take it home and put it in your recycling please? Much better than going to landfill which it has been so far. Speak to Lin if you can help, thanks.
