CHRISTMAS CRAFTERNOON FAIR SATURDAY 24th NOVEMBER

Our Crafternoon Fair is this Saturday and we are still in need of a few things. We are looking short on chocolate donations, tombola prizes and jam jar prizes. Please could we ask you all, to have a little look around at home, for any unwanted gifts you might have for the tombola, that you would like to donate and if you find anything small enough to fill up a jar as well, that would be fabulous. We've had some lovely things donated so far and we thank you all for those ❤️. If you are able to help on the day, setting up and/or clearing away, that would be greatly appreciated and most importantly, please come along this Saturday and bring all your friends and neighbours to enjoy our wonderful Christmas event 🎄

CHRISTMAS FAIR FLYERS

Flyers advertising the Christmas Crafternoon Fair and our Advent and Christmas activities need to be delivered early this week.

Please take some and deliver where you can, there will be a sheet to put your name on and the area you are delivering too. At the very least we need the streets in the immediate vicinity of the church covered.

Any queries, please see Anna.

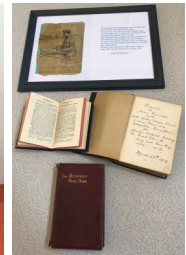

LADIES LEISURE GROUP TOMORROW 2.15pm

Our speaker tomorrow is Margaret McGovern who will be speaking about Age UK.

The next meeting will be our Christmas Communion, held in the church here at 2.30pm on 17th December.

Last Sunday, like many other churches in many nations, we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1 in our service inside church and held an act of remembrance for all who gave their lives in conflict, outside at our poppy-covered cross. If you weren't able to be with us, Ian led us in a very poignant service, reminding us of the need to not only 'remember' but to go on to 'do our bit' in an act of dedication where we undertake to make the things that people gave their lives for a reality in our 'today' - by helping, encouraging and comforting others, supporting those working for the relief of the needy and working towards and praying for peace and the welfare of all nations.
