Please remember in your prayers.....

The Circuit asks us to pray this week for the church around the world.

Ian as he leads the services at Poppleton this morning and Stillington tonight.

We continue to remember our Circuit Superintendent Keith and his wife Helen.

Following the horrific attacks on worshippers, hotel staff and guests in Sri Lanka on Easter Sunday we offer prayers for all affected.

For Anna as she begins her new role on Tuesday, and for Heather who starts hers on Wednesday (officially!).

For our uniformed children parading in York today, and for children and young people preparing for the May SATs and examinations.

OTHER NOTICES

Want to enthuse others in the life-changing work of All We Can? Then please join Graeme Hodge, the new CEO of All We Can, to be inspired by his passion for the future; there will also be harvest materials to inspire congregations. This takes place on 14th May 12.30pm-4.30pm at Methley Methodist Church, Main Street, Methley LS26 9JE. The day is free of charge and lunch is provided. Please book by 30th April (including dietary requirements) via t.baker@allwecan.org.uk.

An update from Heather...

From this Wednesday 1st May, I will be working for the Circuit for 10 hours a week as a Children and Families worker, job sharing the role with Lorraine Jones from Haxby. Our role is to support those involved in children's and family ministry across the circuit and to encourage churches to explore ways of engaging with families in their communities. We'll be providing support to help set up activities such as Messy Churches, community cafes, toddler groups, Dad's breakfast groups, parenting groups, holiday clubs and develop links with schools. We will work as part of a team with Amy Shepherd, the circuit youth worker and Victoria Etherington, the District Youth worker and will also be involved in delivering circuit wide children and youth programmes, such as the One X Programme.

Many congratulations to Heather on this exciting appointment.

We will marking Anna's departure from her role as our Mission Development Enabler at Ian's next service with us, which is on Sunday 19th May.

Our loss is York Dementia Action Alliance's gain, but we are pleased to know that Anna will remain a member of our church and continue to be involved with church activities voluntarily.

Together We Are One — Applications for the ONE Opportunity Scheme for the year commencing September 2019 are welcomed from those aged 16-23. Further details are on the notice board in church.

Many thanks to our Craft and Chat folk for making a further donation to church funds of £61 from the sales of kitting, cards and felt work.

Thanks to Eric for reminding us that any Litter can be reported to the City of York council via their York Customer Centre email:

ycc@york.gov.uk
