If you would prefer to make your Offerings by Standing Order please see Robin

There are a couple of bookings in church on Bank Holiday Monday, so don't be concerned if you see people in the building

Please remember in your prayers.....

The Circuit asks us to pray this week for the church at Acaster Malbis and for those working in the emergency services.

We pray also.....

For Ian preaching first at Hessay then at Rufforth this morning;

for Mo preaching at Sheriff Hutton this morning

For our Circuit Superintendent Keith and his wife Helen.

For children and young people preparing for the May SATs and examinations.

For Anna and Heather as they settle in to their new roles, and for Lin who at the moment is picking up some of Anna's responsibilities.

OTHER NOTICES

Circuit Service at 3pm THIS AFTERNOON at the (Anglican) Parish Church in Stillingfleet.

Don't forget it is a Shared Lunch after our Own Arrangements Café Service next Sunday.

Anyone who has reason to go into the old Youth Club cupboard in the main kitchen will see our new bright red 'Mr Shifter' trolley with his anti-puncture tyres! Its purchase was prompted by a need to move a heavy filing cabinet for a client, but it can be used to more easily bring in food from Tesco after the FareShare collections, and then again for delivery of the same to community groups and putting in our own garden as well.

We will marking Anna's departure from her role as our Mission Development Enabler at Ian's next service with us, which is on Sunday 19th May.

Our loss is York Dementia Action Alliance's gain, but we are pleased to know that Anna will remain a member of our church and continue to be involved with church activities voluntarily.

Many thanks to all who contributed to the retiring collection for Christians Against Poverty, after the helpful talk about it which Tom Redfearn gave. £172.00 was raised in total.

We are very grateful to our Craft and Chat folk for making a further donation to church funds of £61 from the sales of kitting, cards and felt work.

Thanks to Eric for reminding us that any Litter can be reported to the City of York council via their York Customer Centre email:

ycc@york.gov.uk

After a break of a few weeks, our House Group will resume on Monday 3rd June, we will have a couple of weeks to catch up with one another, and then we will be focusing on Bible Month in July and July, looking at Colossians. If you can't make the Monday evening and would like a day time group, please could you have a word with Rosamond.

Volunteers are needed for Action for Children's Fund-raising Fair at St Crux on 22nd June; also needed are bric-a-brac, books, cakes, sausage rolls, quiches etc for refreshments. Please ring 01904 768088 or attend the planning meeting at Haxby & Wigginton Church next Thursday (9th May).

DON'T FORGET

Men's Breakfast next Saturday (11th)

16th June to 14th July 2019

Colossians

Introduction to Colossians for preachers and small group Leaders and others interested on Thursday 16th May 7.30pm at Cornerstone.
